The OncoExTra test is covered for ALL Medicare patients that meet the following criteria:

- The patient has recurrent, relapsed, refractory, metastatic, or advanced cancer
- The patient is seeking treatment
- The patient has not already received testing with the OncoExTra test for the same primary cancer diagnosis

Exact Sciences Is Here To Help

Our team can help patients navigate and understand the insurance and billing process:

- Work with clinicians to get prior authorization from insurance companies (if required)
- Bill insurance companies directly when possible
- Process the claim once the test is complete
- With the patient's consent, assist in the appeal process if a claim is denied
- Contact insurance companies on patients' behalf

1. Exact Sciences estimate is based on historical billing. This calculation includes patients with Medicare, Medicare Advantage, Medicaid, Managed Medicaid and commercial insurance and includes the cost of both NGS and IHC components as most commonly ordered by providers. Patient cost-sharing amounts, including deductibles and copays will vary by plan and coverage type. Only your patient's insurer can confirm if and how the OncoExTra test will be covered.
2. Exact Sciences estimate is based on historical billing. This calculation includes patients with Medicare, Medicare Advantage, Medicaid, Managed Medicaid and commercial insurance and includes the cost of both NGS and IHC components as most commonly ordered by providers. Patients with high-deductible plans may receive a bill for most or all the cost of the OncoExTra test if they have not satisfied their deductible.
